THE PREVAILING EPIDEMIC AT THIS TIME OF year is that commonly called spring fever, and its effects are felt almost universally. It is characterized by lassitude, restless feelings at night, dulness or pain in the head, lors of appetite, indisposition to exercise, pimples, boils, and other symptoms well known to everybody. These symptoms are caused by a bilious state of the stemach and imperities in the blood, which have accumulated during the winter. They may be almost instantly relieved by Dr. McClintock's anti bilious pills and tonic alterative syrup. The latter acts by strengthening and purifying the system, and the former by promoting the natural discharge of the functions of the liver and bowels. The above, with all of Dr. McClintock's celebrated family medicines, may be had of the principal druggists, and of A. CUSHMAN & CO., proprietors, 122 Fulton street.
